📍 Cooks Hill Surf Club

- 2016
- Teaching and practicing beach safety skills to children, young adults and families living with disability. The program's aim is to build safety and awareness amongst the community and Surf Lifesaving volunteers so that all people can safely enjoy the beach and ocean. I volunteered my time in the planning process and as a volunteer assistant working one-on-one with young adults as the program was getting established in Newcastle, NSW.
